Palestinian leader spurns US peace plan

Palestinian President Mahmoud Abbas has said he will not accept any US plan for peace with Israel, after it recognized Jerusalem as Israel's capital.

His comments came after a UN General Assembly vote effectively repudiated Washington's controversial declaration.

Washington has for the past few months been drafting a new peace plan, though it has not divulged any details.

Donald Trump's controversial recognition of Jerusalem as Israel's capital two weeks ago was condemned across the Arab and Muslim world, and hailed in Israel.

What did Mahmoud Abbas say?

The Palestinian leader reiterated that he no longer accepted Page 2

Myanmar denies access to UN investigator

The Rohingya, described by the UN as the world's most persecuted people, have faced heightened fears of attack since dozens were killed in communal violence in 2012.

A UN investigator, who had been due to visit Myanmar in January had to assess the human rights situation, "all access to the country" has been denied, he was told.

"The Government has repeatedly denied violations of human rights are occurring throughout Myanmar, particularly in Rakhine State. They have said that they have nothing to hide, but their lack of cooperation with my mandate and the fact-finding mission suggests otherwise," said Lee.

Myanmar authorities have also not been cooperating with the Human Rights Council's Independent International Fact-Finding Mission on Myanmar, established in March 2017, the statement read.

"I am puzzled and disappointed by this decision by the Myanmar Government.

"This declaration of non-cooperation with my mandate can only be viewed as a strong indication that there must be something terribly awful happening in Rakhine, as well as Page 2

Facts, Events & Beliefs

Jerusalem is a city located in modern-day Israel and is considered by many to be one of the holiest places in the world. Jerusalem is a site of major significance for the three largest monotheistic religions: Judaism, Islam and Christianity, and both Israel and Palestine have claimed Jerusalem as a capital city. Because of these strong, age-old associations, bloody conflicts to control the city and sites within it have been waged for thousands of years.

EARLY HISTORY OF JERUSALEM

Scholars believe the first human settlements in Jerusalem took place during the Early Bronze Age—somewhere around 3500 B.C.

In 1000 B.C. Hazrat Daoud (AS) is said to have conquered Jerusalem. The Babylonians occupied Jerusalem in 586 B.C., destroyed the Temple, and sent the Jews into exile. About 50 years after that, the Persian King Cyrus allowed Jews to return to Jerusalem and rebuild the Temple.

The Ottoman Empire ruled Jerusalem and much of the Middle East from about 1516 to 1917. After World War I, Great Britain took over Jerusalem, which was part of Palestine at the time. The British controlled the city and surrounding region until Israel became an

The Wedding Season

It's that time of the year again when the people across the globe are enjoying the festivities that come with winters! Hot chocolate cups, dry fruits, holidays, family gathering and of course weddings mark the winters in the city of lights Karachi. But, while we enjoy all the elements of winters, we need to pause, learn and reflect over what Islam has to say about weddings. What should a Muslim wedding be like?

Legal Status of Marriage in Islam

Nikah is a very blessed Sunnah so much so that scholars have written to occupy oneself in arranging to marry, or in maintaining one's marriage through earning a living etc. is preferred over performing extra (nafil) acts of worship,

Procedure for Marriage in Islam

Choosing a suitable partner

Although beauty, physical attraction or a feature which is pleasing can be adopted as a means of choosing a partner as subtly hinted in the Quran, the ultimate criteria and basis should be the religious inclination and practice of the individual.

Hazrat Abu Hurairah (RDA) narrated that or Beloved Prophet (SAW) said:

"A woman is married for four things, i.e. he wealth, her family status, her beauty and her religion. So you should marry the religious woman (otherwise) you will be losers." (Bukhari)

It is Sunnah for the marriage to be pronounced and performed in the

Masjid

Proposal & Acceptance, two male witnesses and Wakeel :

Since the purpose of Nikah is to safeguard a person's chastity and modesty, Islam has kept the procedure for Nikah very simple and straight forward.

Nikah is performed with a proposal by the male or female and acceptance by the male or female and in the presence of two male Muslim witnesses. The bride gives consent to her representative (Wakeel) in the presence of two witnesses to perform her marriage. The Wakeel represents the bride in the presence of the two witnesses and the stipulated dowry. The witnesses must be two trustworthy and pious male Muslims who are not her ascendants e.g. father, grandfather or descendants e.g. son, grandson, etc.

Mehr

The groom's side must offer a certain amount of mahr, or dowry. This could be in the form of cash, jewelry or other items of value, as long as the bride agrees to it. The mahr does not have to be physically handed over to the woman at this stage but a contract of intent must be sealed for the marriage to be valid,

Valima:

Valima is the Sunnah of our beloved Prophet (SAW). It is an outward expression of gratitude and pleasure and a great means of publicizing the marriage, which has been greatly encouraged. One should invite family-members, relatives, friends, associates, scholars and pious people and others. It is wrong to invite only rich people or those who are regarded to be from the upper-class.

When one accepts the invitation and attends the party, one has fulfilled the responsibility, regardless of whether one ate or otherwise, although it is better to eat if one is not fasting. If one is fasting, then one should attend and make Dua, and if not, then one should eat and make Dua.

Palestinian leader spurns US peace plan the US as a mediator in the peace process with Israel. He also rebuffed a new US framework for peace being developed by President Trump's Middle East envoy, Jared Kushner, before it has been launched.

"The United States has proven to be a dishonest mediator in the peace process and we will no longer accept any plan from the United States," Mr Abbas told a news conference in Paris.

While the details of the US plan are not known, it has been devised for months and there has been an expectation it will be publicly launched in early 2018.

The last round of US-brokered peace talks between Israel and the Palestinians collapsed amid acrimony in April 2014.

Why is the US at loggerheads with the international community?
Washington perceives the diplomatic opposition to its position on Jerusalem as an attack on its own sovereignty.

It says it has the right to decide its own policies, including where it places its embassies. Alongside recognizing Jerusalem as Israel's capital, Donald Trump ordered the US embassy to be relocated there from Tel Aviv, breaking rank with the rest of the global community which maintain their embassies in the coastal city.

While the US has been widely criticized for reversing decades of neutrality on the issue of Jerusalem, Washington says it is fulfilling an election pledge by Donald Trump to implement the Jerusalem Embassy Act passed by Congress in 1995 but continuously postponed.

Myanmar denies access to UN investigator

in the rest of the country," Lee said.

Since Aug. 25, more than 656,000 Rohingya have crossed from Myanmar's western state of Rakhine into Bangladesh, according to the UN. The refugees are fleeing a military operation that has seen security forces and Buddhist mobs kill men, women and children, loot homes and torch Rohingya villages.

The Rohingya, described by the UN as the world's most persecuted people, have faced heightened fears of attack since dozens were killed in communal violence in 2012.

At least 9,000 Rohingya were killed in Myanmar's western Rakhine state from Aug. 25 to Sept. 24, according to Doctors Without Borders.

In a report published on Dec. 12, the global humanitarian organization said that the deaths of 71.7 percent or 6,700 Rohingya were caused by violence. They include 730 children below the age of 5.

The UN has documented mass gang rapes, killings – including of infants and young children – brutal beatings, and disappearances committed by security personnel. In a report, UN investigators said such violations may have constituted crimes against humanity.

THE TEMPLE MOUNT

The Temple Mount is a compound located on a hill in Jerusalem that's comprised of about 35 acres of land. It contains religious structures such as the Western Wall, the Dome of the Rock and al-Aqsa Mosque.

This ancient landmark is the holiest place in Judaism. References to the area date back to Abraham's near-sacrifice of his son Isaac in Jewish scripture. The site is also the location of the first and second Temples and the spot where many Jewish prophets taught.

The Temple Mount is thought to be the third holiest site in Islam (after Makkah and Madina) and where Muslims believe the Prophet Muhammad (SAW) ascended to heaven.

Christians also believe the site is significant to their faith. It's a place that prophets mentioned in the Old Testament of the Bible, and was visited by Hazrat Essa (AS) according to the New Testament.

Because it has religious and historical implications, occupation of the Temple Mount has been the cause of bitter conflict for centuries, especially between Jews and Muslims living nearby.

An offshoot of the Baitussalam Education Foundation, the Baitussalam Youth Club came up with an exciting and interesting way to engage the youth in an entertaining and valuable way by conducting a two days winter camp during the winter holidays.
